reviews

"Thanks to Adam and Jill's book recommendations from a variety of genres I never have to panic thinking my 'to be read' stack is too short. Love the author interviews that feel like conversations with an old friend at a coffee shop. I finally had to confess to my friends I had help coming up with all of the book recommendations I casually share thanks to this show."

"I have always been a reader, but I have read more amazing books this summer than probably the past five years combined. That is largely thanks to Jill and Adam. I learn about so many different kinds of books that I'd never think to read otherwise!"
